

Young Women's Leadership Charter School Pledge

Today, tomorrow, and every day I pledge to be a leader by inspiring those who come after me and by making a difference in my school, my community, and my world. Although we are different we stand as one, respecting each other as family. I pledge to be open-minded, positive and helpful and to rise like the Phoenix, never giving up on following my dreams.